COMMODITY HIGHLIGHTS

In Nakasero Market, Prices of most commodities were seen to have escalated due to shortage in supply. It was also reported that due to upcoming festive season, traders are currently stocking in preparation for the event as it is anticipated that consumption of commodities like rice, chicken both local and exotic, milk, eggs, and matooke among others will be on high demand. Reports from Mbale Market indicate that most commodity prices remained stable as there was no identical demand right from the sources except Arabica coffee which price hiked up due to good market demand internationally, local buyers' wholesale price went up by shs 200 and retail in bags by shs 300. Iganga Market reported a tremendous drop in prices of Matooke a bunch by shs 2000 and shs 1000 on wholesale and retail respectively. Traders attributed this to poor quality and small sizes supplied .these were supplied from Kamu and Mayuge assembly markets.

LIRA MARKET

The general volume of commodities in the market was seen to have dropped in the market thus an increase in price of commodities like Millet grain. Wholesale buyers were seen to have come from Busia, Kampala among others .the price of maize grain was seen to also have risen due to increase in demand by the locals and others from Mbale, Jinja and Kampala. The price of rice dropped due to increased supply.

MASINDI MARKET

Vendors were overwhelmed by the number of customers especially for commodities like Sweet Potatoes, Super Rice and Maize Flour. However by the end of the week the number of customers in the market had reduced thus led to the drop in price of most commodities. Some of the vendors were seen sleeping in stalls stranded with their commodities. However butcher men were seen selling to their usual customers especially to hotel and restaurant operators
