COMMODITY HIGHLIGHTS

The average price of Matooke (Bunch) across the markets drops by Shs 450 and 200 retail and wholesale respectively. Among other reasons, traders attribute this to the constant supply of the commodity from Matooke producing areas like the Western and Central districts of Kabale, and Kanungu and Masaka.

The average price of Tilapia fish drops by Shs 100 and 50 retail and wholesale respectively. Fishing, particularly in Tilapia has been quite constant in the recent days thus constant supply of the fish and this, market analysts argue has played a significant role in seeing the drop in both retail and wholesale.

JINJA MARKET

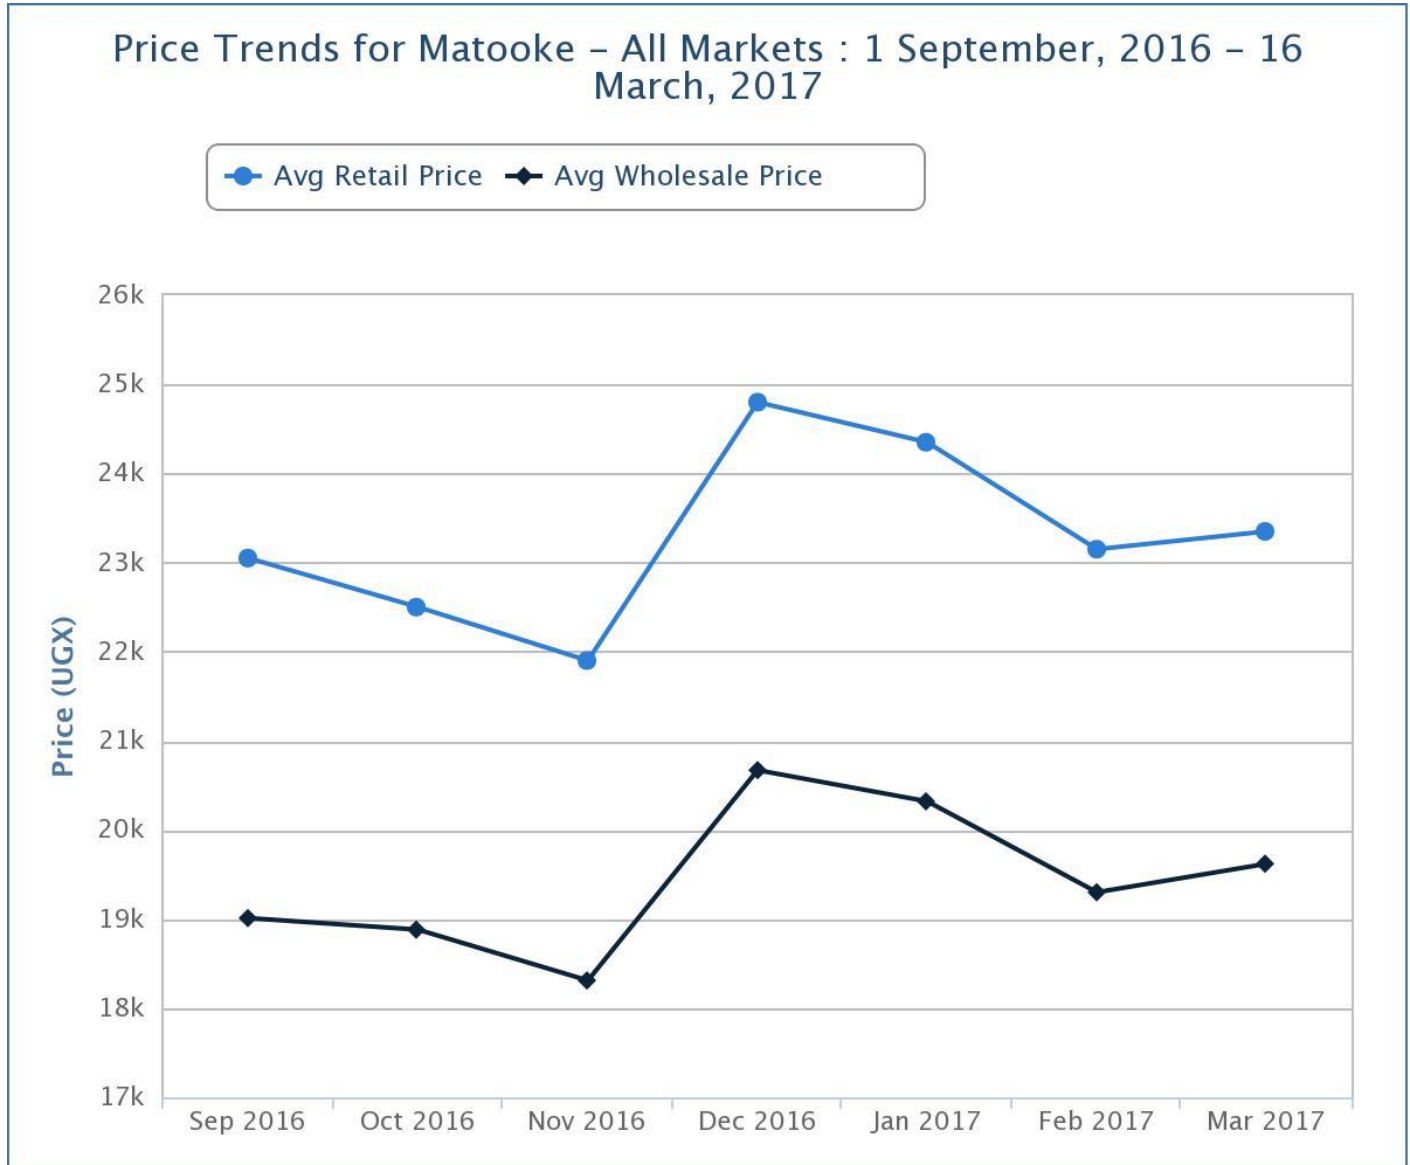

Prices of Turkey Birds were seen to have increased in Jinja Market by Shs 750 and 400 retail and wholesale respectively. Traders attributed this to the low supply of the birds from surrounding markets like Soroti, Mbale, Tororo and Kamuli and its high demand on the market.

As well, the price of Exotic chicken was seen to have significantly dropped by Shs 750 and 900 both retail and wholesale. Traders argue that this has been the case because consumers prefer Local to Exotic Chicken, the fear for infection caused by the outbreak of Avian Influenza amongst the birds most especially the exotic ones in as much as the disease spread has been contained.

KALERWE MARKET

Apart from the price of a Bunch of Matooke dropping by Shs 1100 and 550 both retail and wholesale respectively due to the steady supply from markets like Luwero, Mukono and Mbarara and an increase in the prices of SimSim by Shs 150 both on retail and wholesale, Kalerwe Market registered no change in the prices for most of the commodities traded. This is mainly attributed to the steady supply and demand of such commodities.
