

HIGHLIGHTS

- The average prices of Beef across the markets drop.
- The average prices of Cavendish sharply increase across the markets.
- The average prices of Pineapples slightly increases in all markets.
- The price of Sorghum remains constant across the markets.
- The average prices of Turkey sharply drop across the markets.

COMMODITY HIGHLIGHTS

The average prices of Beef and Turkey drop across all the markets by Shs 150 Retail and 50 Wholesale and Shs 5,550 Retail and 6,400 Wholesale respectively. The low demand and consumption of the commodities among others are the factors traders attribute this drop in prices to.

However, the average prices of Cavendish and Pineapples across all the markets slightly increased by Shs 250 Retail and 200 Wholesale and Shs 100 both Retail and Wholesale respectively. Traders attributed this to the low supply of the above commodities and the high demand from consumers

On the other hand, the average prices of Sorghum Grain across the markets remained constant in the last Two (2) weeks and traders attributed this to the steady supply and demand for the commodity. Sorghum traded at average prices of Shs 1,300 Retail and 1,150 Wholesale across the markets.

IGANGA MARKET

Prices of Apple Bananas, Beef, Cassava Flour, Cavendish, Cow Peas, Exotic Chicken, Exotic Eggs, Goat Meat, Nile Perch, Pineapples, SimSim, Sorghum Flour, Sorghum Grain, White Fleshed Sweet Potatoes, Tilapia, Super Rice, Soya Beans and Groundnuts remained constant in the market. Traders attributed this to the steady supply of the commodities from neighboring markets like Jinja, Kamuli, Mbale and Busia as well as the fair demand for the commodities.

However, commodities such as Kayiso Rice, Local Chicken, Maize Grain, Millet Four, Millet Grain, Nambale Beans and Yellow Beans registered an increase in both Retail and Wholesale Prices with Retail prices ranging from Shs 50 to Shs 1,500 and Wholesale prices from Shs 50 to Shs 1,000. Amongst all the commodities, Local Chicken registered the greatest increase with Shs 1,500 for Retail and 1,000 for wholesale. Traders attributed the hike in prices to the high demand and low supply of the above listed commodities. Farm production of the above listed commodities was greatly affected by the recent drought that struck the country and this was equally another reason that explained the hike in the prices.

MASINDI MARKET

Commodities such as Exotic Chicken and Milk registered a drop in both their Retail and Wholesale prices by Shs 350 Retail and Shs 650 Wholesale for Exotic Chicken and Shs 400 both Retail and Wholesale. The drop in prices is attributed to the abundant constant of the commodities.

Matooke and Cavendish registered an increase in both Retail and Wholesale prices by Shs 150. This was attributed to the high demand of the commodities mostly from the nearby districts of Kiryandongo, Nakasongola and Nakaseke as well as the scarcity of the commodities.

The prices of commodities such as Super Rice, Soya Beans, Sorghum Grain, Pineapples, Nile Perch, Nambale Beans, Tilapia, and White Fleshed sweet Potatoes, Yellow Beans, SimSim and Maize Grain remained constant. Traders attributed this to the constant supply of the commodities and their fair demand in the market.
