COMMODITY HIGHLIGHTS

The average prices of Turkey, Nambale Beans and Milk greatly increased across all the markets by Shs 12,450 Retail and 10,200 Wholesale and Shs 50 Retail and Wholesale and Shs 150 Retail and Shs 100 Wholesale respectively. The demand for the highlighted commodities among other factors, is high and as thus, the great increase in both their prices is attributed majorly to that.

However, the average prices of Cow Peas across all the markets slightly dropped by Shs 200 Retail and 100 respectively. Traders attributed this to the constant supply of the commodity and the waning demand from consumers.

On the other hand, the average prices of Millet Grain across the markets remained constant in the last Two (2) weeks and traders attributed this to the steady supply and demand for the commodity. Millet Grain traded at average prices of Shs 2,250 Retail and 1,900 Wholesale across the markets.

KALERWE MARKET

Apart from Cassava Flour, Matooke, and Pineapples whose prices increase by Shs 100 both Retail and Wholesale, Shs 350 Retail and Shs 150 Retail and 550 Wholesale respectively, other commodities were sold at constant prices both wholesale and Retail.

It is worth noting that the outbreak of Army Worm has negatively impacted on Maize Grain trade in the market. a sizeable number of trader trade in this commodity and as such, their survival is in a balance due to the Army Worm.

LUWERO MARKET

Cassava Flour and Grain registered a slight increase in their retail and wholesale prices by Shs 50.

On another note, there was a significant drop in the retail and wholesale prices of Irish Potatoes, Cow Peas, Exotic Chicken (only retail), Local Chicken, Matooke, Millet Flour, Nambale Beans (only retail), Nile Perch (only retail), Tilapia, Turkey and Yellow Beans (only retail) with prices dropping in the ranges of Shs 2,650 to Shs 100 as seen in the price sheet attached.
