

HIGHLIGHTS

- Matooke prices hike in Lira Market due to scarcity
- Scarcity of Sim sim hits Kalerwe Market thus an increase in price

COMMODITY HIGHLIGHTS

Maize flour and grain have both maintained a constant price for retail and wholesale across most markets averaging at Shs 2500 and Shs 1500 respectively. Sim sim prices remained relatively high in most markets because of increased demand both local and internationally .the main markets that were affected were those in the central and west i.e. Mbarara, Iganga, Nakasero and Nakawa trading at an average of Shs 6000 each. Sim Sim prices however remained relatively low in markets like Lira selling at a retail of Shs 3500 per kg. This was attributed to its availability in the northern region as it is grown on large scale. Matooke prices greatly increased in Lira market by Shs 1,650 for retail and Shs 1000 wholesale. This was because of its scarcity in the region as only a handful of people grow it whereas in markets such as Iganga and Kiboga, the commodity price saw a tremendous drop by more than Shs 3000 for retail from Shs 23,350 to Shs 20,000 in Kiboga market.

KALERWE MARKET

The market experienced mostly a constant and a decrease in most of the commodity prices except for a few commodities such as Sim Sim where prices increased by Shs 500 for retail from Shs 5500 to Shs 6000 and by Shs 350 for whole sale from Shs 4650 to Shs 5000. Other commodities that experienced a price increase in the market include cassava flour and upland rice.
