

HIGHLIGHTS

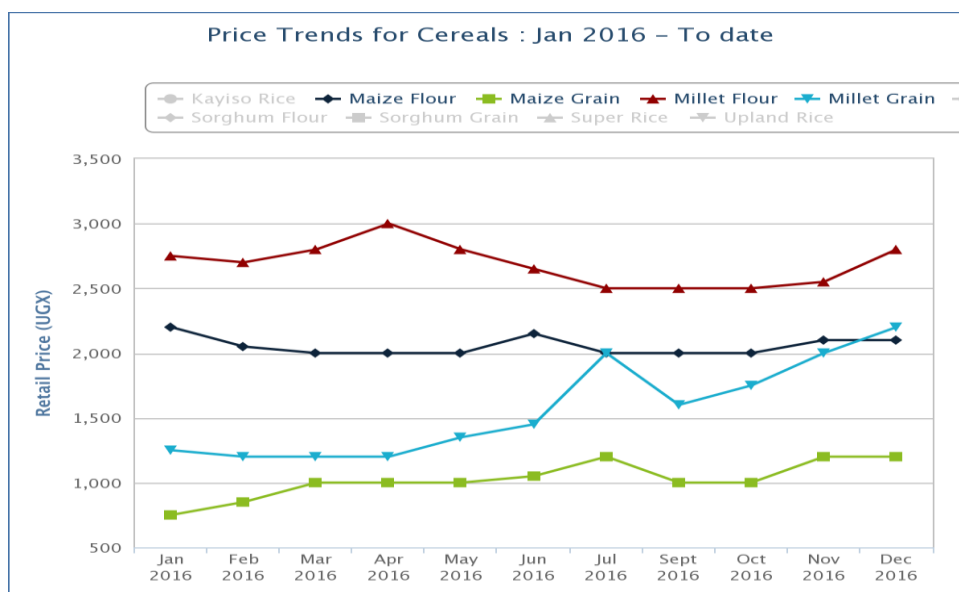

- Beans prices significantly drop across most markets
- Hike in price of Soya beans hits Soroti Market.
- Matooke prices drop tremendously in Katuna Market.
- Local Chicken prices drop in Kabale Market

COMMODITY HIGHLIGHTS

Prices of Matooke a bunch were seen to have dropped from the previous week across most of the markets and this was attributed by traders to both the increased supply of the commodity from major producers like Mbarara and Kabale as well as increased demand by schools for Maize Flour and Rice as the school term begins. Soya beans prices equally continued to soar because of increased demand for the commodity and yet it was scarce in the market. Processed Honey prices experienced a drop by up to shs.3,000 for retail and shs.2,000 for wholesale.

LIRA MARKET

Most commodity prices in the market were seen to have maintained a constant and an increase. Very few commodities experienced a drop in prices. For example, Matooke saw an increase in both retail and wholesale prices by up to shs.3,350 for both and this was attributed to the increased demand that the low supply of the commodity could not meet and traders have to wait for supply from Paidha district. Local chicken, Local Eggs, Cavendish (Bogoya), Millet Flour, Nambale Beans as well as Maize Flour also experienced price increments for both retail and wholesale. Only a few commodities such as Sorghum Grain, Exotic Chicken, Yellow Beans, Apple Bananas and Tilapia experienced a price drop.
