

HIGHLIGHTS

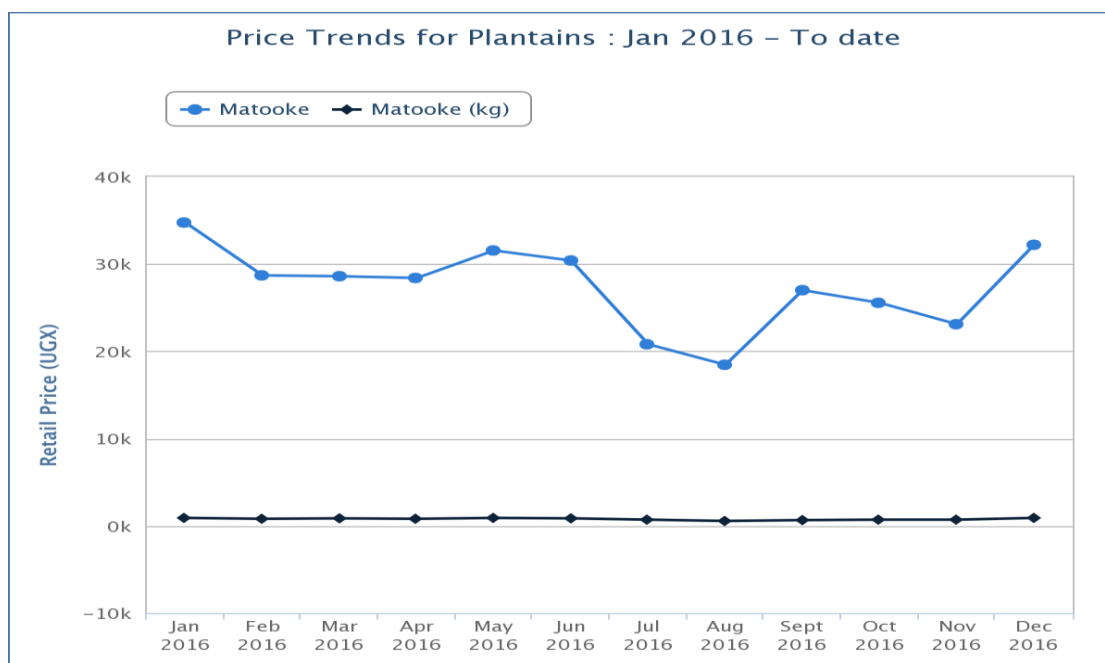

- Yellow beans prices drop in Lira market
- Matooke prices escalate in Owino market
- Exotic chicken prices increase in Jinja market
- Tilapia prices drop in Kabale market

COMMODITY HIGHLIGHTS

Matooke prices continued to escalate in most markets such as Lira, Luwero, Nakasero and Owino. This was attributed to the low supply caused by the delayed supply from districts of Kabale and Isingiro which could not sustain the increased demand for the commodity. However, the commodity experienced a drop in prices in a few markets such as Isingiro, Soroti and in markets like Kabale, the commodity prices dropped down by shs.10,000 and shs.8,000 for retail and wholesale respectively. Sun dried cassava in Lira market experienced price drop by shs.50 on wholesale as the major buying markets like Paliisa, Budaka and Butaleja reduced their demand for the commodity because of the maize harvesting season that begun in those districts.

OWINO MARKET

Matooke prices continued to escalate in the market by up to shs.6,700 on a bunch for both retail and wholesale: from shs.36,650 to shs.43,350 on retail and from shs.31,650 to shs.38,350 for wholesale. Pork, pineapples, Simsim as well as Cowpeas equally experienced a hike in prices mainly attributed to the low supply because of the prolonged drought and increased demand for the commodities. Exotic chicken however experienced a tremendous drop in prices by shs.2,000 and shs.1,850 for retail and wholesale respectively in addition to commodities such as Sorghum Flour and Grain, Yellow beans and Turkey which equally experienced a price drop.
