

HIGHLIGHTS

- Groundnut prices drop in Lira and Iganga markets
- Maize grain and flour prices escalate in Mbale market
- Matooke prices hike in Owino market
- Simsim prices drop in Nakawa market
- Tilapia prices increase in Kiboga market

COMMODITY HIGHLIGHTS

Processed honey experienced a great price drop across some markets such as Kabale and Katuna by up to shs.1,500 and shs.1,000 for retail and wholesale respectively trading at shs.16,500 for retail and shs.14,000 for wholesale in Katuna market. This was attributed to the decreased demand for the commodity by consumers. Groundnut prices equally dropped in markets like Lira and Owino but most noticeably in Kalerwe market where prices dropped by shs.500 and sold at shs.5,500 on retail and shs.250 on wholesale and sold at shs.4,750. This resulted from the increased supply of the commodity from the assembly markets such as Kaliro due to the harvesting season. However, commodities such as Matooke, Sorghum Flour, Yellow Beans, Turkey and Maize flour among others continued to experience price escalation across most markets.

NAKAWA MARKET

Many commodities in the market experienced a price drop for instance, Matooke prices dropped by shs.2,350 on retail and shs.2,700 on wholesale and traded at shs.23,000 and shs.20,650 for retail and wholesale respectively. In the same way, Simsim prices dropped by shs.1,000 and shs.850 for retail and wholesale respectively in addition to commodities such as Kayiso rice, Cow Peas, Fresh Cassava, Nambale Beans, Turkey, Soya Beans and Yellow Beans among others. However, few commodities such as Sorghum Flour and Grain, Maize Flour and Millet Grain all experienced a price increase due to the increased demand for the commodities. Others such as Beef and Super Rice maintained a constant price.
