

HIGHLIGHTS

- Sharp decline in Turkey prices in Nakasero market
- Matooke prices drop in Lira and Masindi markets
- Millet Grain prices drop in Kalerwe market

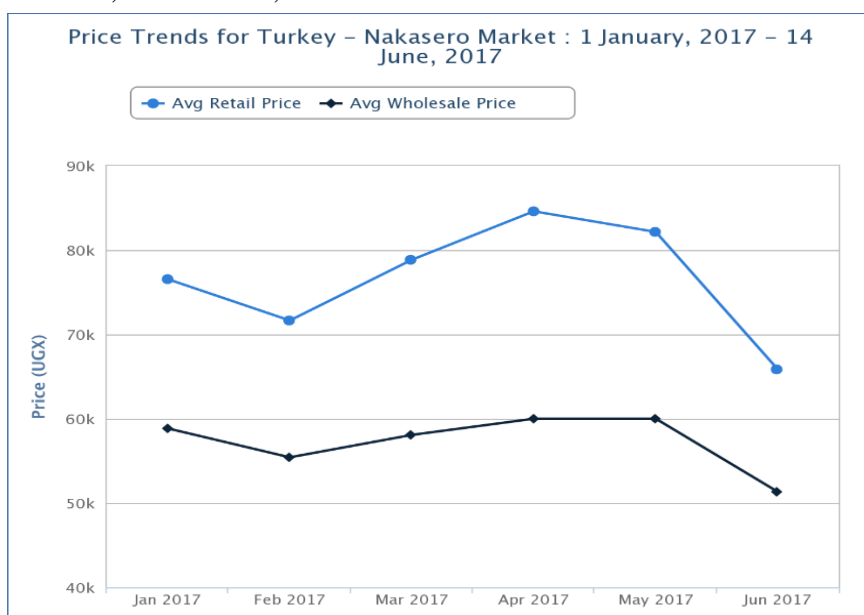

COMMODITY HIGHLIGHTS

The increased supply of Cow Peas from Kenya led to a fall in the commodity prices by shs.250 and shs.150 on retail and wholesale respectively in Iganga market. Irish potatoes prices dropped in Jinja market by shs.100 on both retail and wholesale as a result of Ramadhan which caused a drop in the demand for the commodity as Muslims who form the biggest percentage of the population in the district break their fast with Rice instead. Whereas Matooke prices dropped in some markets like Lira and Masindi, others like Kabale and Isingiro rather experienced a price increase on the commodity due to the prolonged drought which caused a deficit in the surplus. Other commodities that experienced a price increase include; Milk, Nambale Beans, Simsim and Tilapia among others.

NAKASERO MARKET

Prices reduced by over shs.15,000 on Turkey bird in the market up from shs.75,000 to shs.56,650 on retail and from shs.60,000 down to shs.42,650 on wholesale. This was attributed to the low demand for the commodity by buyers who prefer to buy Chicken as it is relatively cheaper. On the other hand, very few commodities in the market experienced a price increase such as Milk, Tilapia, Exotic chicken and Beef. Most of the commodities maintained constant prices from the previous week such as Cassava Flour, Cow Peas, Maize and Millet Flour and Local Eggs to mention but a few.

Prices for Groundnuts dropped by shs.250 on wholesale from shs.4,800 to shs.4,550 whereas retail maintained its price at shs.6,000. In the same way, Simsim prices dropped by shs.150 on both retail and wholesale from shs.6,500 to shs.6,350 on retail and shs.5,000 to shs.4,850 on wholesale.
